SUBJECT Edwin Wilson

NEWSWOMAN: Authorities in New York say ex-CIA agent Edwin Wilson will be returned to Washington to face charges he trained Libyan terrorists. Wilson was reportedly lured from his safe haven in Libya by an international trap set by the government. The ex-CIA agent was arrested Tuesday at New York's Kennedy Airport and is expected to be arraigned in Washington on Friday or Monday.

Wilson was indicted in 1980 on charges of illegally exporting explosives, detonators, and other equipment to Libya, and providing training for Libyan terrorists.
